RANDOLPH TWP. — The natural beauty of New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and the Great Northwest is alive and on view in John Looker's photographic exhibit at County College of Morris.

The brilliant splash of Looker's color photography exhibit is open to public viewing at the college gallery in the Sherman H. Masten Learning Resource Center now through Dec. 3. Gallery hours are Monday through Thursday — 7:45 a.m. to 9:45 p.m.; Friday — 7:45 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday — 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Looker has been a freelance photographer for the past dozen years. One of his more unusual assignments was as staff photographer for the Electric Circus in New York City. His fine work has been exhibited in leading galleries throughout New Jersey, New York and commercially in magazines, newspapers and record albums.

A photography teacher for many years, he currently is involved in free-lance work for local music groups and other commercial assignments. An avid backpacker, he selected most of the work for the current exhibit during excursions through the wilds of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the Great Northwest.

Capsule Reviews Of Current Theater Offerings

THE MISSOURI BREAKS

Superstars Marlon Brando and Jack Nicholson deliver delightful and dazzling performances. Arthur Penn's 1980 period Western set in the majestic Montana hills. Brando plays an eccentric and sadistic hired gun commissioned by a wealthy cattleman to wipe out a gang of horse thieves headed by Nicholson. But without these two magnificent talents, the film would be just another average horse opera. Screenwriter Thomas McGuane merely set the clock back on his previous plot that served the film "Rancho Deluxe." He jazzed it up some with late 20th Century philosophizing. Newcomer Kathleen Lloyd demonstrates extraordinary potential in the role of the cattleman's liberated daughter who falls in love with the likeable Nicholson. (PG)

MARATHON MAN

John Schlesinger's supercharged thriller about a Columbia University graduate student (Dustin Hoffman) who, for reasons he cannot understand, is pursued and tormented by a surviving Nazi war criminal (Laurence Olivier). The film is paradoxical. It generates tension at times is nearly unbearable. There are moments of intense excitement. It's crammed with brutal killings, bone-chilling torture and triple crosses. Yet it's all wrapped in a murky and confusing plot that hardly makes much sense. Hoffman, Olivier and the rest of the cast are in fine form. The screenplay was written by William Goldman from his own novel. (R)

RATING KEY

DEADLY HERO

Don Murray portrays a psychotic New York City cop who kills a black mugger-shake down artist. Moments of suspense occasionally perk up the thin script and moody photography of the metropolitan jungle adds some color. But it still comes off as a rather commonplace melodrama. Also stars James Earl Jones and Diana Williams. Directed by Ivan Nagy. (R)

GODZILLA VS. MEGALON

This imaginative comic-book film from Japan has the good Tyrannosaurus Godzilla defending Tokyo from the ravages of similar prehistoric monsters. The storyline is rather appealing and the technical effects are superb. And, would you believe, the violence is low-keyed. Lots of fun for the kiddies and even some adults. Directed by Jun Fukuda. (G)

THE FRONT

Here is a bold, entertaining and moving comedy-drama about the entertainment industry's painful experience with the political witch hunts of the '50s. Woody Allen is outstanding as a goggle-eyed schlemiel who fronts for blacklisted TV writers by submitting their scripts under his name. Many involved with this film — director Martin Ritt, screenwriter Walter Bernstein, and performers Zero Mostel, Herschel Bernardi and Lloyd Gough — were themselves blacklisted. This uncompromising look at that tragic period is handled with intelligence, feeling and humor. (PG)

THE RETURN OF A MAN CALLED HORSE

Richard Harris stars in a mystical sequel to "A Man Called Horse" in which he initially played the leading role. Again he portrays an English nobleman who this time returns to South Dakota to rescue his adopted tribe from annihilation. Harris participates in yet another gruesome purification ritual where his chest is pierced by small bones and then stretched. It's not for the squeamish. The film is mostly placid but it's highlighted here and there with short periods of action. Directed by Irvin Kershner. (PG)

SWASHBUCKLER

A lavish yet tacky pirate adventure photographed mostly around Puerto

Vallarta, Mexico. Robert Shaw and James Earl Jones are a couple of daring pirates bent on ridding Jamaica from the clutches of a corrupt governor played by Peter Boyle. The uneven film can't make up its mind whether it's straight action melodrama or burlesque. It's mostly tedious and hard to watch in the spirit of those colorful pirate adventures of 20 years ago. Now Errol Flynn — there was a swashbuckler. Directed by James Goldstone. (PG)

BURNT OFFERINGS

Skillful direction from Dan Curtis produces a lot of chills and tension in this thriller about a family that rents a creepy old mansion for the summer. There are solid performances, too, from Karen Black, Oliver Reed, Lee Montgomery and Bette Davis. Cliches are sprinkled throughout the plot and the ending is predictable. But the eerie goings on at that rambling murderous house and the mystery behind the locked door on the top floor will keep moviegoers on the edges of their seats. (PG)

SMALL CHANGE

Francois Truffaut's 15th feature is an endearing and entertaining celebration of childhood. The film evolves through a series of vignettes about a group of French children who manage to survive in an adult world with or without love. Truffaut lovingly treats his children as human beings, not as gimmicks for entertainment or exploitation. "Small Change" is for everyone, except perhaps those who don't like children. In French with English titles. (PG)

Aztec Two-Step Too

Harry Chapin At CCM

RANDOLPH TWP. — Ballad singer and songwriter Harry Chapin will appear in a benefit performance along with acoustical folksingers Aztec Two-Step at the County College of Morris Sunday, Nov. 21, at 8 p.m.

Chapin stipulated that his fee for the concert go to the Performing Arts Foundation. Chapin, well known for his benefit performances, first made his debut with Elektra Records when he cut the hit single "Taxi."

Born in Greenwich Village, Chapin began his singing career with the Brooklyn Heights Boy's Choir. At the age of 14 he moved on to a music act with his three brothers.

Leaving them behind, Chapin formed a small group of lead guitar, bass, and cellist and opened at New York's

Village Gate which eventually led to an Elektra contract and his first album "Heads and Tales."

A second hit single "Sunday Morning Sunshine" brought him further recognition and his newest album "On the Road to Kingdom Come" has skyrocketed to Billboard's Top 100 LP's in the last few weeks.

Aztec Two-Step, who have performed on the Chapin circuit before, are a patchwork folk, rock and country duo of one very-city Neal Shulman and Maine original Rex Fowler. The two met in Boston, joined forces to be the Two-Step and almost instantly became a box-office success, selling out to crowds at the Unicorn, fabled Boston coffeehouse-stepping stone for many of today's rock stars.

Elektra gave them their first contract, and FM radio singled out "The Persecution and Restoration of Dean Moriarty" (Jack Kerouac's "On the Road") from their first album "Aztec Two-Step." Successful tunes such as "I'm in Love Again," "Faster Gun," "Walking on Air" and "Humpty Dumpty" are contained in the Aztec Two-Step RCA debut album "Second Step."

Tickets for the concert are $4 and $5 with CCM ID and $5 and $6 without I.D. Tickets may be purchased at the CCM Student Community Center; Tempo Music, Dover; Robbie's Music, Parsippany; Music Box, Ledgewood; Hand Feats, Madison; and the Village Den, Morristown.

Boots Randolph And Sax Will Return To Playboy

McAfee — Another word for saxophone is "Boots."

In the music industry, Boots Randolph is regarded as tops with the sax, and the audience at the Playboy Resort and Country Club at Great Gorge in McAfee agreed when he appeared in the Cabaret two years ago.

The gifted performer, who spices his show with humor, will return to the North Jersey Resort on Friday and Saturday.

Signed by guitar great Chet Atkins for RCA in Nashville, Boots recorded "Yakety-Sax" and vaulted to stardom.

More than 100 cities in the United States and Canada have personally heard the wide range of Randolph's sax playing, thought to be the greatest in the country.

While playing for all of the top television variety and late night shows, Randolph has proved to be an excellent "guest" on the talk shows too. He has hosted two one-hour TV specials.

"Yakety-Sax" won an award for Randolph and co-author James Rich in 1965, and the performer also wrote "Cacklin' Sax," "Chick In The Rough" and "Simple Simon," all big hits.

Formerly dedicated to jazz, Randolph has moved into a "country" oriented jazz direction to capture a wider audience.

Information and Playboy key information are available through the reservations department at the Playboy Resort.
